JONES BROTHERS WORLD TOUR-ED WILD ANIMAL SHOWS, SNYDER, TUESDAY OCTOBER 25TH

Lovers of horses find unusual delight in the horses of the Jones Bros. Wild Animal Shows. The general collection is unusually fine, even for organizations that make a specialty of beautiful and well trained equine wonders, but nowhere before has ever been seen such a peculiar selection of horses as those that are ridden by the equestrians who do the artistic riding. These actually dance to the music of the band and keep time and when the music changes they change step in harmony. No one can witness the horse workmanship of the ladies in the Jones Brothers arena and withhold a burst of admiration whether he be a horse fancier or not. The living statuary produced by other splendid milk white horses in the posing of the animals and their riders is a remarkable novelty. Lately at Chicago, a number of artists, among them Mr. H. H. Nelson, a famous painter of animals, as well as persons and especially distinguished as having made great portraits of more than four hundred of historic Indians and frontiersmen, witnessed the postures mentioned and declared them to be a masterpiece of tableaux vivants—a marvel of living sculpture. These groupings alone repay a visit to this intelligently arranged and well-balanced Jones Brothers Wild Animal shows.

CALIFORNIA (Nannie H. Harrison)

There is so much to see and enjoy in California one never has time to stop to tell it until they have passed on to another clime, but having seen it, one never forgets. It is not difficult to understand why Californians have a patent right on boasting, they have the goods.

My first stop was at Los Angeles. Appropriately called "The City of the Angels" for truly with its wealth of flowers, its wonderful fruit, climate, beaches, parks and boulevards. One can have an earthly Eden. It is the mecca for poets, artists, dreamers, and motion picture stars.

I next visited Santa Anna. The home of the Orange, also a most artistic and literary town. Through the courtesy of my relatives here I visited the beautiful beaches, Newport, Balboa and Leguina. The latter is a rock island west and my favorite of all ocean beaches. Quite a rendezvous for artists. From Santa Anna, with Mrs. Judie Montgomery and daughter, I visited San Diego. The quaint city of old Spain, so new and yet so old in appearance.

Here is found the most wonderful development in the growth of vegetation. In fact, the San Diego Exposition is the most complete horticultural display that America has ever seen. Added to this, the music of old Spain, the birds, the flowers and the soft sea breezes and you have a picture that will ever linger. Mr. Polk, of the publicity department is a former Texan and in every way worthy the name "Texan".

From San Diego back to Los Angeles and after a few days stay I visited San Fernando and saw the enormous farm land district. Orange, Lemon, Olive and English Walnut groves and miles and miles of roses and geraniums.

My next move was to Merced. This is the point from which tourists take the Yosemite Valley trip. Here I was the happy guest of my cousins, Judge E. N. Ruster and family and after a few days in their home I made that wonderful Yosemite Valley trip and the Tuolumne big trees. It has been said that Yellowstone park is most wonderful scene, Grand Canyon the most awful scene and Yosemite Valley the most beautiful scene in the world. The latter I am prepared to say must be correct. I can't describe it. No one has done it, but I can say that the very atmosphere of the valley lifts your spirits like the great shafts of granite walls surrounding you.

First the El Capitan rising perpendicularly to a height of 3300 ft. Then Cathedral Rock, Half Dome, North Dome and Glacier Point. The coloring of these falls is exquisite. We climbed the verdant canyon to the Vernal and Nevada Falls and stood at the foot of the rainbows and gathered bags of gold in beauty. We gazed into the depths of Mirror Lake and longed for power to portray the witchery of all this handwork of the Great Artist. In Yosemite Valley We lived more in a day than in any other place we have yet seen.

We were entertained at beautiful Camp Curry and the memories of that night of bliss shall never from us part. The entire trip up the Merced Valley and through the giant forests is so replete with enchantment your heart aches at the thought of a farewell.

From Merced I visited San Francisco, the climax and the great Panama Exposition. The very setting of this world wide fair is beautiful. As I looked out from the Airscope 200 feet above the sea level at the Worlds Fair buildings, the Tower of Jewels, the beautiful Colonades in their coloring, at the Bay San Francisco with her many steamers, war ships, light houses, etc; as I beheld for the first time the famous Golden Gate and watched the sun sink down in the old ocean's willing arms. As I looked up over the expansive hills of San Francisco I cried "She's a great success. San Francisco—here's health to thee. No unique, so beautiful, so cordial, so everything that makes the tourist love thee. The hum hum of the greatest, most successful of all world's fairs. San Francisco, Adios.
